This is a reprint. The original was scanned and the text corrected for spellings, something that was very difficult in the original mimeograph process. There is also some minor editing. The Hales Manuscript pages being developed during the publication of the Old Series of The Hales Newsletter have been deleted because the content is now found in The Hales Chronicles, now in its second edition with the third edition planned for 2005.

The Hales Chronicles can be found on the Hales web-page at www.hales.org and at The Family History Library of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at Salt Lake City, Utah; The Library of Congress at Washington, D.C.; The Library of The Society of Genealogists at London, England; and the Centre for Kentish Studies at Maidstone, Kent, England.

The Hales Newsletter is provided to the above cited repositories and the Allen County Public Library at Fort Wayne, Indiana. The Allen County Public Library indexes our publication and provides articles through their Periodical Source Index (PERSI).

Reprints of the Old Series of The Hales Newsletters are available at a cost of $3.00 each.

Editorial

With this issue of the HALES Newsletter goes my wishes of a Happy Holiday Season to all members of the HALES Family. May the echos of good will to all men and the spirit of brotherhood be with you and yours throughout the coming year.

Please note the change of address on the cover of this Newsletter. Due to a change of assignments I have relocated to the city of Bakersfield, California. We are now living in temporary facilities until our new home is completed at 4113 La Mirada Drive – this should be done within the next 60 days and then things will be back to normal.

As a matter of interest, there are now 59 Sustaining members, 20 Contributing members, and 50 Active members for a total of 129 members of our society. We are now to the point where we are beginning to live up to the Hales motto, "United Force is Stronger." Our book is progressing nicely and I am being overwhelmed with information. At my expense I have employed a typist to assist me in assembling all the information I have into our manuscript. Please keep it coming – I appreciate all the family information you are sending me.

In our last Newsletter I proposed 5 family reunions to be held during the summer of next year. Two of these area reunions would be held on the west coast in July of 1971, one in the north and one in the south. The other 3 would be on weekends in August 1971, giving me time to travel during the week. I would like some of you members to get together in your local areas and plan such a reunion. Please don't wait for someone else to do it, we need people of our organization to identify themselves as a planner. Generally speaking if you wait for someone else to do it, it doesn't get done. Some ideas for a reunion would be an overnight camp-out at some national park over a weekend, a picnic at a recreational area, etc. These kinds of functions require reservations that should be placed in the near future. The Reunions will be held where I get some organizational help. Please make some plans and submit them to me so we can work together to finalize them. Lets get together and "make it happen."

"NEWS AND VIEWS"

This section of our Newsletter contains the "happenings" that I am made aware of between issues. Send me your announcements of area reunions, marriages, births, deaths, interest articles, etcetera, and they will be included in the Newsletter to all of the Hales Family. Contributions of articles for the Newsletter are requested.

From Alfred D. Hales, M.P. of Ottawa, Canada, came many interesting articles, Parish Register extracts, etc. The extracts will be published later along with the many I already have beginning in the next issue of our Newsletter. I was interested in a clipping he sent dated Jan. 15th:

PRIME MINISTER DATES JENNIFER AGAIN. (London (CP) – Prime Minister Trudeau Tuesday night took actress Jennifer Hales to see the play Hadrian VII, starring Canadian actor Douglas Rain.

There were about eight in the prime minister 's party at the Mermaid Theatre.

On his way to the Thames-side theatre, Trudeau stopped off at one of his old schools, The London School of Economics, to have sandwiches and coffee with some of the faculty and students.

It was the prime minister's second London date with the dark-haired Miss Hales. He took her dining and dancing at Annabel 's night club Jan. 6th.

Trudeau had a glass of champagne with theatre owner Bernard Miles and Miss Hales at the interval, and after the play, went to Rain's dressing room to chat with the actor.

Trudeau entered the theatre five minutes before curtain time to some cries of "Trendy, Trendy," the chief British adjective applied to the prime minister during his stay here.

Miss Hales was already in the foyer. Trudeau put his arm around her in greeting and led her to their sixth-row centre seats.

I have received several requests to have the Hales Coat of Arms and Crest colored and enlarged suitable for framing. This will be done in the near future, printed, and made available thru this society. The details and cost of this reproduction will be included in the March Newsletter.

I have received the photocopies from the British Museum and they contain many pedigree charts. As soon as I can get them in some kind of organization and permission from the Museum I will include them in a future issue .

I have also received the following publications from the sources noted. These publications are the property of the Hales Genealogical Society and may be borrowed by any of its members for a maximum two week period. In order to borrow any of these items the member need only pay postage both ways plus a penalty if any damages occur.

HALES in Maryland

The following letter was received from Samuel Dale Hales, our UPI correspondent, and is reproduced in its entirety.

Upon my pursuing my fruitless search in London for lists of passengers on ships to Maryland in the first years of that proprietary colony, I wrote to the Maryland Historical Society asking where and how and for how much I could get copies of such lists if these did indeed exist.

There came back in my pre-stamped reply envelope a folder complete with Order Form, describing in detail a book The Early Settlers of Maryland, published in 1968, and priced at $15. For further detail on the book, see heading paragraph on the attached. I shall verifax the folder and send copy along.

I have not bought the book, because inquiry disclosed that Missouri Valley Room (genealogical, historical) of the Kansas City Public Library has a copy. I went over Saturday afternoon and went through the book and its lists, which contains nearly 25,000 names.

The genesis of the present book goes back more than a hundred years, to various earlier efforts by earlier persons to compile lists of the Original Land Record books opened in 1633-1634 and most of which are in fact still extant.

"Transported," as used in the lists, is a word to describe a person's having had his ships passage paid for him, usually on condition of his or her working for the passage-payer for a certain period of time in repayment. "Service is used to describe a transported persons having given land, as was his or her right to have, upon completion of the period of indenture or "bounden" term.

"Immigrated" as used means a person paid his own passage from the United Kingdom to Maryland.

There is a thing to think about, in regards to HALES, THOMAS, on the list. Could he have been one of those settlers in Maryland who had already come over from the Virginia Colony, before King Charles granted Maryland to Lord Baltimore, and settled on land so granted to Lord Baltimore?

The "Remarks" column shows for HALES, THOMAS (two entries):

"Immigrated 1631-36, with wife."

(The years 1631-1632 and 1633, and 1634 into March, were all BEFORE the arrival of any of Lord Baltimore's colonists or representatives).

"Petition to Confirm Title of Land Granted 1640 by Captain William Clayborne (or Caliborne)."

(Captain Claiborne was the chief man of the Virginians who had "squatted" so to speak, on land granted November 1633 by the king to Lord Baltimore for Maryland Colony. Very soon after the Baltimore immigrants governor and etcetera arrived, friction developed between them and Claiborne and adherents ousted Laurence Calvert, Lord Baltimore's brother and governor of the Maryland Colony, and fighting developed The Calvert regime was ousted at least temporarily).

I intended to try to do a little more looking into these angles or possibilities. In the meantime, attached is a separate sheet listing the HAILES and HALES names shown in the admittedly definitive Maryland early settler lists.

Has anybody come up with any "tree" going back to these?

THE EARLY SETTLERS OF MARYLAND 1633-1680. "An Index to Names of Immigrants Compiled from Records of Land Patents in the Hall of Records, Annapolis, Maryland," a book edited by Gust Skordas, Assistant Archivist, State of Maryland, published 1968 by Genealogical Publishing Company, 521-23 St. Paul Place, Baltimore, Maryland 21202.

There appears on page 201:

HAILES, John, Transported to Md 1660; filed for land 1670 upon completing bounden servant term.

HAILES, Mary, Transported to Md 1671; land on "service" 1677.

HALES, Samuel, Transported 1658.

HALES, Elizabeth, Transported 1658, Service 1663.

HALES, Joyce, Transported 1670.

HALES, Robert, Transported 1659.

HALES, Spencer, Service 1873, of Calvert County.

HALES, Thomas, Immigrated 1631-36, with Wife; 1640, Petition to Confirm Title of Land Granted by Capt. Wm. Clayborne.

There are no listings for HAILS, HAYLS or HAYLES.

In a foreword to the book, which consists of an Introduction by Editor Skordas and about 520 pages of alphabetical listings, Dr. Morris L. Radoff, Archivist and Records Administrator, State of Maryland, wrote:

". . . an accurate alphabetical index listing of all the families of those who came and demanded land under the conditions of plantation. This is a remarkably complete work, especially for Maryland, because no list of passengers or ships has survived. Since the land was given free on demand, we can assume that most, if not all, of the immigrants to Maryland for the first fifty years are listed. There is much supplementary information because every man who claimed land claimed it not only for himself but for those he transported with him, wives, children, other relatives, maids and men servants."

That completes the letter from Sam D. Hales. It is a very good example of source material available in most large cities libraries. If anyone else is searching for this type of material please forward a copy of your findings to me and it will get distributed thru our Newsletter. Thank you for your contribution Sam.

The 1970 HALES Directory

This is the final edition of the 1970 Hales Directory. Note that this directory is incomplete – having been developed from telephone books and replies to the Newsletter requests. There have been many changes since the initial attempt to develop a Hales Directory in May.

Please look over this list and advise me of any errors, missing people named HALES that you know, etcetera. Make sure all of your immediate relatives are included. It has proven to be quite a challenge to work up this list and I am interested in keeping it as accurate as possible.
