The Hales Newsletter contains current events, historical sketches and genealogical information pertaining to the Hales family. It is published by Kenneth Glyn Hales, secretary of The Hales Genealogical Society from 1970 through 1981 and The Hales Family History Society since 1995.

The Hales Family History Society
Kenneth Glyn Hales, Founder (ken@hales.org)
5990 North Calle Kino
Tucson, Arizona 85704-1704

This is a reprint. The original was scanned and the text corrected for spellings, something that was very difficult in the original mimeograph process. There is also some minor editing. The Hales Manuscript pages being developed during the publication of the Old Series of The Hales Newsletter have been deleted because the content is now found in The Hales Chronicles, now in its second edition with the third edition planned for 2005.

The Hales Chronicles can be found on the Hales web-page at www.hales.org and at The Family History Library of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at Salt Lake City, Utah; The Library of Congress at Washington, D.C.; The Library of The Society of Genealogists at London, England; and the Centre for Kentish Studies at Maidstone, Kent, England.

The Hales Newsletter is provided to the above cited repositories and the Allen County Public Library at Fort Wayne, Indiana. The Allen County Public Library indexes our publication and provides articles through their Periodical Source Index (PERSI).

Reprints of the Old Series of The Hales Newsletters are available at a cost of $3.00 each.

News and Views

This section of our HALES Newsletter contains the "happenings" that I am made aware of between issues. One of the many advantages of a society such as this is that information can be published for all the HALES family to see. Remember just one address – 1800 Ryan Road, Concord, California 94520 – send your announcements of area reunions, marriages, births, deaths) etc. and they will be included in our Newsletter to all the HALES family. Contributions of articles for the Newsletter are welcomed. Dig thru your records and send me anything of value about your branch of the family. What you may have might be the bit of information another member of the family is looking for. I will edit what I receive and add it to our growing file of information.

Remember our HALES family motto, vis unita fortior – United force is stronger. We as a family can unite. We can build a strong family organization if we apply ourselves. Give me your support and I will get our organization moving.

Many letters I have received have asked me to further-identify myself. I am a 36 year old GG Grandson of Stephen Hales who married his cousin Mary Ann Hales. This Stephen Hales was born in Stockbury, Kent, England and arrived in Canada in 1832.. Stephen Hales descended from ancestors located near HALES Place, Boxley, Kent, England mentioned as the home of Sir Robert Austen in 1728. Sir Robert Austen was the GG Grandson of William Austen and Elizabeth Hales. There are many HALES people that descend from this Stephen Hales – we will explore his parentage later in another Newsletter.

My great grandparents were George Hales and Sarah Ann Gregory. My grandparents were Charles Harmon Hales and Eva May Burgess. My parents were Frank Hales and Eugenie Pettersson who died along with two of my brothers and one sister in a flaming car accident in Nevada in 1954. I was born in Salt Lake City, Utah and have two sisters and one brother living there.

My wife is the former Judy Larsen. We have five sons: Kenneth Gregory Hales; Jeffery Que Hales; Richard Don Hales; Kelly Glyn Hales; and Terrence Loel Hales.

I am currently on a one year second shift (5:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m.) assignment managing service representatives from six IBM Branch Offices at San Francisco which leaves me many hours during the day to expend my energy on this project. I do not necessarily consider myself to be an expert genealogist, but I do consider myself to be a good manager.

Letters received as a result of the first letter I mailed earlier.

We were enthused with your letter, and with what you are doing. We feel you have taken quite a responsibility on your own, and feel if people won't support you, they are certainly missing something.

Your HALES Genealogical circular was received and appreciated. Also, the program that you seem to have in mind sounds good. We hope it turns out to be successful .

Your letter and background of the family name of 'Hales' was most interesting and we thank you for your time and efforts.

We were surprised and pleased to receive your letter, as we have often wondered about the Hales family ancestry.

I am delighted to hear from another Hales who is interested in genealogy and hope with all my heart that ours is the same family.

I have written to my grandfathers niece – she is supposed to have about 18 pedigree charts on the Hales line. When she sends them I will make copies and send them to you.

You will be interested to learn that one of my cousins compiled a Hales Family record for us – starting with our great grandfather. It was completed in 1966 and I am sending a copy to you under separate cover.

There are many others who have written to me. I have heard from a Minister in Kansas, an attorney in San Jose, a UPI newsman who could probably write this Newsletter better than me but I welcome his comments, and many others.

About your letters, unless the information requested by anyone pertains to them only, I would prefer to answer letters in the Newsletter. This will help me to avoid duplication and with the mailing list I am using of several hundred HALES families will simplify the job I am trying to do. Please feel free to write however, your letter will get an answer.

Thanks to all of you that have gone an extra mile and sent me much unrequested data. I have begun the task of setting it all in order.

I hope that you are as enthused about receiving this Newsletter as I am in composing it. If you have any suggestions about the format, please send me your comments and suggestions.

One of the reasons that contributes to the difficulty in reconstructing a family history is poor record keeping. Many people do not realize how much value a good record of what is happening will be to future generations. I propose that we do not let any more time pass without all of us spending enough time to make certain that we leave a good record for our descendants.

The main objective of the HALES Genealogical Society at this time is to gather enough information to make a book of all HALES individuals world-wide.

Don't be left out of the proposed book or our HALES Directory – return the family sheet to me as soon as possible so that we may begin the next level. The sheets do not have to be typed as I am retyping all of them, but please make them as complete as possible (i.e. show the maiden names of the wives and all known dates).

For our book, after you have sent me the family sheet of your family, please begin collecting the information to complete a family sheet for your parents family.

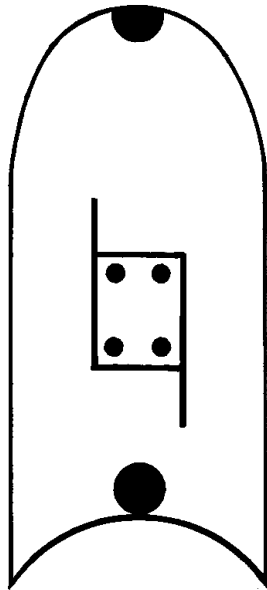

Begin thinking about writing a short history of yourself. This history should contain things of importance to you – what you remember, how you think. This history should be completed in less than 1000 words. Mail the information to me when you can. This information will be used for future articles for our newsletter.

Sir JAMES HALES – Justice of the Common Pleas

In the reign of Henry VIII (1509 – 1574) the family of HALES made its first appearance among the Judges of England. James Hales the eldest son of John Hales and Isabel Harry of the Dungeon near Canterbury was a member of Gray's Inn, where he was an ancient in 1528, autumn reader in 1533, double Lent reader in 1537, and a triple Lent reader in 1540. James Hales was created a knight of the Bath at the coronation of Edward V, on February 20, 1547. He married Margaret Hales daughter of Thomas Hales of Henley-on-Thames. On May 10, 1549 he was appointed a judge of the common pleas. Sir James Hales had the privilege of keeping swans, a much sought after grant from the crown, which allowed captivity on his own private waters of this royal bird.

The birds were pinioned and marked with his private marking illustrated here.

Hales
Swan Mark

These markings were authorized through the King's Swan Master. Any unmarked swans at liberty in common waters belonged to the crown by rights of prerogatives.

Sir James Hales was strongly attached to the doctrines of the Reformation but was the only Judge who refused to affix his signature to the instrument placing the crown on the head of the Protestant Lady Jane Grey. He believed that it was an attempt to exclude Mary in her right of succession to the throne. He was persecuted for this position, imprisoned so long, and threatened so much that he was weakened to the point that he attempted suicide by opening his veins with a penknife. He recovered and was released from prison in April 1554 after he was induced to recant.

Sir James Hales was so disturbed after his release that he finally drowned himself on August, 4 1554 in a shallow stream at Thanington near Canterbury. This incident suggested to Shakespeare the arguments which he put into the grave digger's mouth in Hamlet: – "If here lies the water, good: here stands the man, good: if the man goes to this water and drown himself, it is, will he, nil he, he goes, mark you that: but if the water come to him and drown him, he drowns not himself: Argal, he that is not guilty of his own death shortens not his own life."

HALES, born ca 1792 of North Carolina, and Sally HANA, his wife.
Some known descendants of Luke J.
HALES, born ca 1790 of North Carolina, and Catherine SEWELL, his wife .

CURRENT PROJECTS.

1. I am retyping all the family sheets I have received in the mail and have started compiling our HALES book. To date I have received over 60 sheets which comprises nearly one tenth of the HALES on or mailing list.
2. I am updating and expanding our HALES Directory to make sure each HALES family is included. Please look over the initial Directory effort and give me what help you can on it.
3. At a cost of $100.00 I have retained a genealogist in Kent County, England to work on the parentage of HALES, John born ca 1699, and FOSTER, Mary, his wife. If anyone else is working on this line please let me know the extent of your search and results. Anyone wishing to contribute towards this effort may do so by becoming a Sustaining Member of our Society earmarking their contribution to this end.
4. I am currently in process of extracting all HALES references from all Parish Registers that I can find. If anyone else is searching Parishes would you expand your search to include ALL HALES DATA in the Parish, the dates of the Parish record and send me a copy of your findings.

MANUSCRIPTS.

The following is a list of manuscripts that have been ordered from the British Museum. I have been advised by the Museum. that there is a 10 to 12 week wait for photocopies of these manuscripts. Their notice was received 5 weeks ago.

QUERIES

This section of our newsletter is devoted to queries from readers. The format for these queries is illustrated with the queries shown that I composed using information that has been requested of me that I do not have. When you have a moment, would you check your records for any information on these queries. If you have any information return it to me and I will publish replies in the next newsletter. By using this method duplicate questions and answers should be eliminated.

To submit queries simply write me a letter stating the information desired. This service is free of charge to all members of the HALES Genealogical Society. All others will be required to pay a fee of 2 cents per word.

1. HALES/FOSTER. Desire any information on the birth date and place and parents of John Hales and Mary Foster. ## THE 1970 HALES DIRECTORY

The following list of names was compiled from telephone books found in the library at the University of California. It is the beginning of the directory of the Hales Family of America. I realize that it is not complete and in many cases is outdated but it should serve as a start. Would you set down with this list for a minute. and see if all your immediate relatives are included. Let me know about any omissions or other errors. If any of you travel, please look in any phone books that you happen upon and send me a list of any Hales individuals found in them. I will contact everyone that I am made aware of. This list will be updated and resent to you with a later issue of this newsletter.

The list is in alphabetical order by first name. Other people on the mailing list that do not have a Hales in their names are on the end of this list.
